Applications Reopen for Rural Roadside Signs

Applications have reopened for the Rural Roadside Sign Project funded by the Australian Government and Council is inviting residents to apply by 12 December 2024.

The roadside signs are designed with enhanced visibility features, including reflective materials that ensure they stand out in low-light conditions. Residents in areas with a speed zone of 80 km/h or higher can secure a sign for a subsidised cost of $110 (including GST).

Residents can complete the application form on the Rural Roadside Sign Project Page and submit it via email to council@gisc.nsw.gov.au, in person at Council's Church Street Administration Office at 136 Church Street, or by mail to PO Box 61, Glen Innes NSW 2370. For further assistance, Council encourages residents to visit the Church Street Office or call (02) 6730 2350.

"Get In Here" Call for Community Involvement

Council is excited to announce its new Get In Here campaign, showcasing the real heart of Glen Innes Highlands.

We're calling on our community to help bring it to life!

Council invites expressions of interest from residents, businesses, community groups and passionate locals who would like to be featured in the campaign's photography and videography.

Interested in getting involved?

For more information or to submit your interest, please contact Rhonda Bombell, Coordinator of Economic Development & Tourism, at (02) 6730 2408 or email rbombell@gisc.nsw.gov.au.

To learn more, visit the Get In Here Campaign Page at: haveyoursay.gisc.nsw.gov.au/get-in-here-join-the-campaign
