Get In Here - A Big Thank You to Our Community!

Council recently engaged Vagary Studios to capture high-quality photos and videos for the upcoming Glen Innes Highlands tourism campaign, Get In Here. These visuals will be featured in the campaign rollout in 2025, showcasing the unique spirit of Glen Innes Highlands on Ngarabul Country.

Through these community snapshots, Glen Innes Highlands is proud to highlight the local businesses, residents and culture that not only define this region, but also contribute to the ongoing economic development of the area. Council would like to thank the local businesses, community members and everyone who participated.

Missed out this time? Council will again host a Get In Here campaign for Autumn 2025, offering another opportunity for the community to get involved. For more details, visit Get In Here page.
