School Holiday Fun in the Glen Innes Severn Region!

If you're staying local these school holidays, Council has plenty of activities lined up to keep kids and teens entertained!

Jump into the Regional Youth Spring Holiday Break Program, packed with fun for young people aged 12 to 24. Thanks to grant funding from the NSW Government, Glen Innes Severn Youth can enjoy awesome activities at the Glen Innes Severn Public & TAFE Library, The Youth Booth, and the Glen Innes Indoor Sports Centre in partnership with PCYC. Whether you're into sports or creative workshops, there's something for everyone! For more details or to register, visit: www.gisc.nsw.gov.au/Events-Activities.

For younger children, the Vacation Care Program through Council's Children and Family Services (CAFS) offers a range of activities for kids under 12 during the holidays. For more information or to enrol, contact CAFS at (02) 6730 2210 or kbowman@gisc.nsw.gov.au.

Plus, don't forget about the other exciting events happening at The Youth Booth and the Library. Call The Youth Booth on 0418 281 657 or visit the Glen Innes Youth Facebook page for more information. For library activities, visit the Glen Innes Severn Public & TAFE Library Facebook page.

Explore the New England Garden Trail in Glen Innes

Get ready for a blooming adventure as the New England Garden Festival introduces the New England Garden Trail! For the very first time, this six-day event will showcase 18 breathtaking cold-climate gardens across our stunning region.

Glen Innes Garden Opening:

Join us on Tuesday, 5 November, from 9 AM to 2 PM to experience the stunning gardens of Glen Innes!

Take your time to enjoy the gardens, and, afterwards, explore our many other great local attractions for a complete experience.

The trail kicks off in Walcha on Thursday, 31 October, winding through Uralla, Armidale, and Guyra, before concluding in Tenterfield on Wednesday, 6 November.

For further information, including specific garden locations, head over to the New England Garden Festival Facebook page.
